

100 Keys (feat. Rick Ross & Pusha T)

Big Sean

Ay, ay I'm from a big city
Tryna make a living
Come to my hood
Everybody get it
And for that paper all the wrong things sound right
Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
Young niggas gettin' money, young niggas gettin' money
Just a bittersweet symphony
I play the keys handle dope, Barry Manilow
The game a bitch, but at times she sweet as cantaloupe
Hit the road key of coke in the mantle fold
Triple beam dreams with a trunk full of scattered clothes
Japanese denim, down south numbers
Hit it once trust it would make a fat fiend stumble
Do the speed limit, all gold shoes
Call 'em penny loafers, they a pretty penny too
I'm tipping strippers but I call it penny pinchin'
She talking shit but I could get her titties lifted
My new crib got it's own city limit
Motherfucker got his own city in it
Blue marble on the floor
Wet as salt water
Ima boss, Im just playing hoes(holes) like a golf course(Young niggas gettin' money, young niggas gettin' money)
Just a bittersweet symphony
I'm from a big city
Tryna make a living
Come to my hood
Everybody get it
And for that paper all the wrong things sound right
Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
Young niggas gettin' money, young niggas gettin' money
Just a bittersweet symphony One hundred keys
One hundred please
My gazuntite could make a whole city sneeze
Walk the mud jungle where they grind it out the leaves
So they swarm to my honeycomb, hideout for the bees
You know what this sounds like
Money counter sound bytes
Machine gun fire

Name ringin' through like the town like
 Church bells ringin' Know what he was found like?
 Colombian necktie over hospital gown white
 She live on her knees
 I live in a condo in the trees
 The air's a little thinner that I breathe
 Iron Man Audi, let the top strip tease
 My life is slow motion but the watch screaming freeze
 Yeah, young nigga gettin' money
 The feds dragged neck, couldn't take nothin' from me
 The decoy car is a crash test dummy
 What follows is a hundred of 'em wrapped like a mummy I'm from a big city
 Tryna make a living
 Come to my hood
 Everybody get it
 And for that paper all the wrong things sound right
 Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
 Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
 Young niggas gettin' money, young niggas gettin' money
 Just a bittersweet symphony Boi
 And they gon' risk a hundred lives
 So they could rock a hundred whites
 The guests look like a hundred lights
 Man when blade died my city cried a hundred nights
 Yeah I got a main girl, but I done hit a hundred types
 Every wrong I do, I'm steady tryna do a hundred rights
 Got it for cheap, compare the price
 My nigga keep that low key, Barry White
 And don't worry 'bout the info
 From where they ride Pintos, and could afford Enzo's
 'Cause everybody know, keys open doors (keys-keys open doors)
 But bricks open windows
 Countin' a hundred hundreds, more by more
 Built this from the tile up, floor by floor
 Talk shit, I send 'em door by door
 Made for the Snow White like 4x4's(truck) I'm from a big city
 Tryna make a living
 Come to my hood
 Everybody get it
 And for that paper all the wrong things sound right
 Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
 Where I'm from they push a hundred keys and it sound like
 Young niggas gettin' money, young niggas gettin' money
 Just a bittersweet symphony
