

Repulsive Virtues

Forsaken

Were annihilating everything we've known
There acts of subjugation were abortive
Subduing what's ours as we bring them to extinction
Those who oppose shall die from endless suffering
You look through my eyes as you contravened me
Deceiving all who wanted to believe
I should of slit your throat from the beginning
This world we live in will always suffer from everlasting contamination
All who die will go straight to hell along with this fucking disease
All who die will go straight to hell with the disease
Vile creations have shown no sign of remorse
Abominations infesting our possessions
Now pure anguish will be initiated
Those who oppose shall die from endless suffering
Endless torture
These minds immobilize the feared for satisfaction
Misanthropy has become some sort of a trend
This is the beginning of the fucking end
Misanthropy has become a fucking trend
I am the fucking end
Dehumanized figures impairing this corrupted race
As the condemning slaves beg for their end
Extracting hope from devotion
The effects from which we all suffer
We all die for a reason
So we can conquer the afterlife
