

I Want You (feat. Samantha James)

Blake Lewis

When I touch you, there is no more hurting
We're more than lovers freezing time
Bound together, bodies resonating
Getting louder as we climb
'Cause you and me
We break the laws of gravity
And I, I believe
You've been waiting far too long,
so give in to your fantasy I want you, you burn into me
Your taste runs through my mouth
I want you, lost in ecstasy
You shiver as I'm going down...Down, down, down, down, down, down, down...
You move like honey as you brush against me
Your body language sends you off
You whisper closely, "baby won't you hold me"
So I'll never let you go
'Cause you ('cause you), and me (and me)
We break the laws of gravity
And I, I believe
You've been waiting far too long,
so give in to your fantasy I want you, you burn into me
Your taste runs through my mouth
I want you, lost in ecstasy
You shiver as I'm going down All I, all I, all I feel is you I want you, you burn into me
Your taste runs through my mouth (through my mouth)
I want you, lost in ecstasy
You shiver as I'm going down
I want you, you burn into me
Your taste runs through my mouth
I want you, lost in ecstasy
You shiver as I'm going down I want you, you burn into me
Your taste runs through my mouth (through my mouth)
I want you, lost in ecstasy
You shiver as I'm going down All I, all I, all I feel is you (I want you, I need you, I feel you)
