Shallow

Ivy

Shallow, shallow Shallow, shallowShe's in love again, oh, yeah Rise above again, oh, yeah His number's fading on her hand And it's a day to rememberShallow, shallow Shallow, shallowWhat an easy game to play What a perfect thing to say He tells her, "You're the world to me Why don't we dive in together" Shallow, shallow Shallow, shallowSun dies on a beautiful show Dream on 'cause there's nowhere to go He'll say what she's wanted to know Over and over, foreverShallow, shallow All we ever had to be All we ever wanted to be Shallow, shallow All we ever had to be All we ever wanted to be Shallow, shallow All we ever had to be All we ever wanted to be Shallow, shallow All we ever had to be All we ever wanted to be
