Rescue

Ashanti

All alone and Im feeling wantedTry to wait but my bodys calling, youre the one so why dont you come and rescue me, Ill be here while you on your way, counting down till I see your face, hurry up cause I love the way you rescue me.
Now yourre here, come on out, the rain soaking wet body glistening, finally we could do something so rescue me, Cant believe how its going down, Im so obsessed with this love I found it got my head spinning round and round just rescue me.
All night long Take me away to another place, rescue me save me, save me save me all night long Take me away to another place rescue me
Save me, save me, save meI come alive when I feel your thouch and I can drown In this pool of love, you could get what Im thinking of Come rescue me, what you think couldnt be replacedif you were gone I would find a way to get you back, cause I love the way you rescue me, laying here with you in the darkI always knew you could shift my heart, when Im with you I dont want to stop so rescue me, only you can fulfill my need take me away from this agony,
I want to live out my fantasy just rescue me.
All night long Take me away to another place,
rescue me save me, save me save me all night long
Take me away to another place rescue me
Save me, save me, save me
All night long Take me away to another place,
rescue me save me, save me save me all night long
Take me away to another place rescue me
Save me, save me, save me
All night long Take me away to another place,
rescue me save me, save me save me all night long
Take me away to another place rescue me
Save me, save me, save me
