

Ziggy Looked Me in the Eye

Foy Vance

Fired up and you say you want it
No, don't ever lose your will to fight
Oh, and when you think upon it
It's hard work but it will be worth it
When we see smoke filling up the sky
Burn it down, then we'll build upon it
'Cause we're the children of the revolution
Ziggy looked me in the eye and said, 'Revolution!'
Never let the spirit die, revolution
It's only just a quarter mile to the revolution
No need for to think it over
No need to beat around the bushel now
See it all as a wanted lover
I'm your sister and your brother
Come and put your hand in mine
We'll tear 'em up and turn 'em over
'Cause we're the children of the revolution
Ziggy looked me in the eye and said, 'Revolution!'
Never let the spirit die, revolution
It's only just a quarter mile to the revolution
And all that they will tell you
Is what they'd have you to believe
But when your eyes are open
This is what you see
You see that all the leaves are falling
And there's no moisture in the tree
So let's just light a fire underneath it
'Cause we're the children of the revolution
Ziggy looked me in the eye and said, 'Revolution!'
Never let the spirit die, revolution
It's only just a quarter mile to the revolution
No, I don't wanna wait a while for the revolution
It's only just a quarter mile to the revolution
