

Is She

Kakkmaddafakka

You can hear music and conversation from apartment no. 5,
I'm with all of my friends, anticipation, anticipation.
It was the first thing I saw when I came,
and I don't need to know a name, there's only one questionRef:
Is she, is she old, is she old enough for me?She kicks off her shoes, and offers me her hand, it's time to end this anticipation, anticipation.
So I move her to the sound, and the music slows right down, lips almost meet face, but there's still one question in that tiny space...Ref. (x2)You can hear music and conversation from apartment no. 5,
I'm with all of my friends, anticipation.
So I move her to the sound, and the music slows right down, lips close to her face, but there's still one question in that tiny space...
