

Rain

Kings Kaleidoscope

In the pouring rain
I will be the same
When you're wandering
You and I will still remain
You'll run to hide
Deep in the night
Give up the fight
I am always on your side
In the pouring rain
I will never change
When you feel afraid
I am there to bear the weight
I'll turn the tide
Open the sky
You'll be alright
I am always on your side
I am enough, always enough
You are enough, precious and loved
Morning will come, sure as the sun
I am enough, you are enough
You are enough
In the middle of the pouring rain
I will call your name
When your soul sways
On and off and on again
You'll change your mind
But still be mine
We're intertwined
I am always by you
I am enough, always enough
You are enough, precious and loved
Morning will come, sure as the sun
I am enough, you are enough
I am enough, always enough
You are enough, precious and loved
Morning will come, sure as the sun
I am enough, you are enough
Every child of God
