

Clocks Go Forward

James Bay

Darkness bleeding in
The sun is getting low
No diamonds in the trees
Inly leaves of gold
& our long days
In the heat haze
Start to fade
We can hide
Under sheets
Under heavy covers
So deep as the night draws in & we'll be
Slow-hearted lovers
'Til the clocks go forward again
Again, again, again yeah
When there's no blue above
Gonna keep my summer clothes
'Cause there's still a field of green
Underneath the falling snow
When our hands grow
So cold
& hard to hold
We can hide
Under sheets
Under heavy covers
So deep as the night draws in & we'll be
Slow-hearted lovers
'Til the clocks go forward again
Again, again, again yeah
Stay warm
Close your eyes
Let time fly
Stay close
Stay right here
Nothing to fear
& we'll hide
Under sheets
Under heavy covers
So deep as the night draws in & we'll be
Slow-hearted lovers
'Til the clocks go forward again
Again
Again
Again, yeah
& again
