

Soldier

Damien

What have I done to feel this fits from heaven?
I have the question
Have I done wrong?
What's with this reaction?
Am I a mad man? If I walked on water, would I sink or drown?
I, I think I'm lost, could I ever be found?
If I held your Bible, will my soul set fire?
When the dark days come, will I be up by your side?
Oh, when this world comes crashing down
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
I'll be the soldier
Oh, when this place falls to the ground
I'll be, I'll be the soldier
