Liquid Courage (feat. Victoria Monet)

Eric Bellinger

Mission accomplished got me where you want me
So why you over there boy?
If you wanna come close it's all good
Yea yea yeaWhat are we waiting for?
I can't contain it
It'd be a shame if we let this moment be wasted
I'm sorry that I'm being blunt but I'm kinda faded
I'm kinda fadedAnd all I want is you
Yea yea, yea yea
All I want is you
Yea yea, yea yea
I dare you to come and take me down
I had a sip of liquid courage
Promise I'm a make it worth it
I dare you to come and take me down
No regrets tomorrow
So come and take me down, yeaKeep it a secret
That makes it more exciting oh
The climax of a lifetime
But we'll do it again, it's all good
Yea yea eh eh eh eh eh eh ehWhat are we waiting for?
I can't contain it
It'd be a shame if we let this moment be wasted
Sorry if I'm being blunt but I'm kinda faded
I'm kinda faded
And all I want is you
Yea yea, yea yea
All I want is you
Yea yea, yea yeaI just wanna come and take you down
Have a sip of liquid courage
I promise I'm a make it worth it
I just wanna come and take you down
No regrets tomorrow
So let me take you down, yeaGirl, all I wanna do is come and take you down
Only thing I wanna do is yea
(Come and take me down, yea)
Girl, all I wanna do is come and take you down
All I'm really tryna do is...Boy, you know what I'm down for Talk less so we can do more
Lay your head on my pillow
I'll show you some things that only I know
Type of things that we live for

With the people we die for
Nice to know when we run up ohI dare you to come and take me down
I had a sip of liquid courage
Promise I'm a make it worth it
I dare you to come and take me down
