

Playa Playa

Migos

I can take you places you ain't never been
You ain't never been on that Island fucking with Gilligan
Lil mama foreign, she an immigrant
I can turn you to an American citizen
Courtside Staples watching Lakers
Big mansion, no neighbours
Bitch go back to watching basic cable
If she thinking she can play a player
Playa playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon')
Playa playa, playa playa (nah, never)
Playa playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon)
That bitch she think that she gon' play a player
See one thing you can't do is you can't play a player
I done did everything that you did, and I've been everywhere
She riding on Toyota, have you ever been on a Lear?
A California foreign baby, something you can barely steer
Wait hold up, that's something you can't afford
You say you want that for real, well I can lease that Porsche of course
Take her to the mall, shutdown your favorite store
Have her walking out with bags, she don't wanna shop no more
Damn, Dolce Gabbana's, Alexander McQueen, she want red bottoms
This bitch she say she want her hair just like Rihanna's
And she know daddy money longer then Rapunzel
My diamond stones cause she say she want a stoner
The way I kick it shawty thought I was a punter
Try to play me like I'm crazy, make me think that she famous But I got one question baby, how the fuck you thinking that you gon' play a player?
I can take you places you ain't never been
You ain't never been on that Island fucking with Gilligan
Lil mama foreign, she an immigrant
I can turn you to an American citizen
Courtside Staples watching Lakers
Big mansion, no neighbours
Bitch go back to watching basic cable
If she thinking she can play a player
Playa playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon')
Playa playa, playa playa (nah, never) Playa playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon')
That bitch she think that she gon' play a player No she can not play me like a Playstation
Pull up and I drop her off Atlantic Station
You know I don't want nothing but some penetration
So hit me later, tell me what's the situation
You know It's nothing

She said she never been to Atlanta now she coming
 Flying from a foreign country, trying to get into something
 Really she don't know nothing, can't play a player
 Baby girl I want you on the northside, welcome to my world
 Then why the hell she so mad then
 She ain't got nothing but a little back end
 She hop in the front of the Bentley coupe
 And she give me brain that's frontin'
 Her phone ring, she hop out my Bentley like her grandmama was calling
 I ain't seen her since then, and she still keep calling
 Can't play a player
 They say she got a man, keep her shopping out on RodeoImma let him do it, I ain't gonna spoil her, I'm a player
 No not gon' sell no dream, this ain't no fairy tale
 They say that you cuffing her, nigga you working for 12I can take you places you ain't never been
 You ain't never been on that Island fucking with Gilligan
 Lil mama foreign, she an immigrant
 I can turn you to an American citizen
 Courtside Staples watching Lakers
 Big mansion, no neighbours
 Bitch go back to watching basic cable
 If she thinking she can play a playerPlaya playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon')
 Playa playa, playa playa (nah, never)
 Playa playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon)
 That bitch she think that she gon' play a playerI'm a player, bitches calling me Bill Bellamy
 She want my formula, can't give away my recipe
 Italy, Hawaii, Beverly, it don't even matter to me
 I'm on the road every day, somebody come call for me
 The rings, the chains, the bezels, you ain't even on my level
 Gotta fit you in my busy schedule
 I can help you get your life together, I'm flyer than a feather
 In any weather, I'm a player
 We can swap these bitches out nigga and trade them
 I've never been the cuffing type, I'm no lifesaver
 I put a hole in your nigga, he like a bagelI'm on the molly calling Scotty like I'm Fabo
 You not a J-Lo, you a OK ho
 Shut the fuck up before I beat it on my table
 Number one rule of the Playbook
 Never cuff a bitch that one of your partners done hitI can take you places you ain't never been
 You ain't never been on that Island fucking with Gilligan
 Lil mama foreign, she an immigrant
 I can turn you to an American citizen
 Courtside Staples watching Lakers
 Big mansion, no neighbours
 Bitch go back to watching basic cable
 If she thinking she can play a player
 Playa playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon')
 Playa playa, playa playa (nah, never)

Playa playa, playa playa (thinkin' she gon)
That bitch she think that she gon' play a player
