

Landslide

A Thousand Horses

Southern soul, heart beatin'
An old dirt road, choir singin'
And standin' tall for what you believed in
And I'm movin' like a landslideBoss man sits in his suit and his tie
Always tryin' to tell us what to sing, what to write
Couldn't hum a tune if it hit him in the eye
Bullet in a Bible, stars in the sky
I don't need you to tell me what to sing
Southern soul, heart beatin'
An old dirt road, choir singin'
And standin' tall for what you believed in
And I'm movin' like a landslideLeft wing, right wing, tell me where you stand
Doesn't really matter just be your own man
Fightin's hard enough just tryin' to be free
Hole in my heart, cards up my sleeve
I don't need you to tell me who to beSouthern soul, heart beatin'
An old dirt road, choir singin'
And standin' tall for what you believed in
And I'm movin' like a landslide
Southern soul, heart beatin'
An old dirt road, choir singin'
And standin' tall for what you believed in
And I'm movin' like a landslideAnd I'm movin' like a landslide
And I'm movin' like a landslide

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>