

Let Go (feat. Kele & MNDR)

RAC

You are golden
You are pure
You are golden, boy Tell me
Your problems
I'm here for you
Just try to stay sober
It's eating you
And they say you are a monster
But what I see is a child
Your eyes are glowing red
And your tongue has caught on fire
You're pure
You are golden
You are pure boy
You are golden So let go, let go of your fire
Let it go, let go of your fire
Live it up till we crash
In the smoke and the ash
let it go, let go of your fire You play up to them
But they're not around
Don't be so rough with me
You are a gem
And they ask how i can love you when all they see is this
But i see things that you cant contain
And what it does to you You're pure...
