

Cross My Heart

LFO

Everybody makes mistakes
I told you I was sorry Won't you tell me what to do to make your sad eyes believe Cause girl no matter what, it takes I swear I will make it better Cause I'm not so used to wearing my heart out on my sleeveCross my heart
I swear

I'm gonna make this right
please don't leave me standing here
I'll make all your darkness disappear
Cross my heart

This time (this time)
I'll be loving you forever
And when I need to say a prayer
I'll call your name
On my heart, I swear
Do you remember yesterday you promised me tomorrow how we held each other the way you kissed me don't throw it all away Cause girl we have so much to lose can we just tear out these pages give me one more chance I'm begging you but baby please don't goCross my heart

I swear
please don't leave me standing here
cross my heart
this time (this time)
I'll be lovin you forever
and when I need to say a prayer
I'm gonna call your name
on my heart, I swear Cross my heartI'm trying to turn this love around you keep the sky from fallin down I'm on my kneesCross my heart
I swear

Please don't leave me standing here
cross my heart
on my heart I swearcross my heart
I swear
no matter where you go I need your touch
I need it so muchCross my heartcross my heart
I wanted you to know I need to feel you next to meCross my heart I swear (no matter where you go)
girl
