

Angela

dvsn

Everybody's got different sides to 'em
She's no exception to the rule
One day she's hotter than the sun
Next she's colder than the moon
You say you want to feel appreciated
So before you come around I can ask how far it's come
To be ready for us now Always thought she was the prettiest
But she don't know
So nice to meet you, Angela 2
Now how shit begins, don't represent the end It's not always what it's about There's ups and downs, to the East and the West Sometimes it's north and south
I pray for all my meals
And I hope to God, hope that he can hear me Don't let her get caught up now Cause the world out there is less forgiving Always thought she was the prettiest But she don't know So nice to meet you, Angela Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah, oh yeah, yeah Oh yeah, yeah No more hanging in the shadows She's bringing it all into the light She put it all on display Even her darker side And it ain't easy Holding onto yourself And making it out alive I know what's out there for you It should come as no surprise Always thought she was the prettiest But she don't know So nice to meet you, Angela Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah, oh yeah, yeah Oh yeah, yeah No one's gonna fool around with us So nice to meet you, Angela
