

Come & Go

Juice WRLD & Marshmello

Whoa
Uh, oh
Uh I try to be everything that I can But sometimes I come out as being nothin'
I try to be everything that I can
But sometimes I come out as being nothin'
I pray to god that he make me a better man, uh
Maybe one day I'ma stand for something
I'm thankin' god that he made you part of the plan
I guess I ain't go through all that hell for nothin'
I'm always fucking up and wrecking shit, It seems like I perfected it
I offer you my love, I hope you take it like some medicine
You tell me, ain't nobody better than me
I think that there's better than me
Hope you see the better in me
Always end up bettering me
I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go
I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go We take drugs then you hold me close
Then I tell you how you make me whole
Sometimes I feel you like being alone
Then you tell me that I should've stayed in the room
Guess I got it all wrong, all along, my fault
My mistakes prolly wipe all the rights I've done
Saying goodbye to bygones, those are bygones
Head up, baby stay strong, we gon' live long I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go
I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go
I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go
I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go
I don't wanna ruin this one
This type of love don't always come and go
