Whatchamacallit (feat. Chris Brown)

Ella Mai

I know you got a girlfriend, baby
You know that I got a man, ooh yeah
We could wait until we're single
But it won't be as fun thenIt's somethin' 'bout being wrong that just feels so right
Think about it in the morning 'cause we [?] all night
And baby we could keep going 'cause you already know it
That you'd never stop the show until you see the lightsAnd the lights stayin' on right now
I can't even see what's going on right now
'Cause this Hennessy is so strong right now
I don't even care if I'm wrong right now, right now, right now
It ain't cheating, it's a whatchamacallit
This could be our little secret, our whatchamacallitGirl, I know you got a man
He can't make you lose it like I can
I can tell that you've been working all night, all night
'Cause baby,
what they don't know can't hurt 'em (white lies, white lies)It's somethin' 'bout being wrong that just feels so right
Think about it in the morning 'cause we [?] all night
And baby we could keep going 'cause you already know it
That you'd never stop the show until you see the lightsAnd the lights stayin' on right now
I can't even see what's going on right now
'Cause this Hennessy is so strong right now
I don't even care if I'm wrong right now, right now, right nowIt ain't cheating, do this whatchamacallit
This could be our little secret, our whatchamacallit
Heyy
Girl, I need it
Boy, I need it
To get you all alone in my bed, my bed
Baby, don't tempt me
To see if I can love you, baby
Can't [?] can't be friends
I'm thinking we can do this forever, oh yeah
And let some bullshit creep in
You're my nigga, say fuck themIt ain't cheating, do this whatchamacallit
This could be our little secret, do this whatchamacallit
It ain't cheating, do this whatchamacallit
This could be our little secret, whatchamacallit
