Nappy hair, nappy hair, no shame, homie

T'Challa poppin, never colonize 'round the high-fives for the top God, made us dangerous

Eight of us, flame with us, every idol bring to us, gangs of us

Trained to trust and man that's bloodstains of us Christ gained us[Pre-Chorus]

I'm so free I got no chains
Look at my neck
No chains, no shame, rapper[Verse 2]
Yeah come get your opinion they don't matter
Money or the faith I chose the latter
Ohh, I can see them trying to keep us on the outside now
We pull up and watch them scatter yeah
Running through the woo (ay)
Heaven got a playlist
I promise that's my favorite placement (woo)
Faithful over famous
Yeah faithful over famous
New rappers that's sure to blow are really drug addicts with a studio
You gotta pop pills on the usual then that paradise ain't really coolio
If your world is really that flames then why you always high, tryna escape?
Gram flexin' that's too fake and them money phones really money loans
And that real life is you coming home, empty house and a heart of stone
Bad chick super savage but for a bigger bag she moving on
Oh yeah you making moves but these folks don't really love you
Industry only love dudes that they can use, don't be confused
Interviews that don't tip toe
Go and check my info
His glory that's simple
Riding around with that tempo
That's liberal that's conservative, that's charismatic and reformed too
My wife happy and Jesus love me ain't nothing left to conform to Haha (no chains on me, I got no chains on me)[Pre-Chorus]
I was running with the set
Running with the set
We don't ever flex we just rep
Hear me, what did you expect?
I don't need respect
I'm the threat[Chorus]
Tell em I'm so free I got no chains on me
I'm so free I got no chains homie
Nappy hair, nappy hair, no shame, homie
I'm so free I got no chains on me
