

Phoenix (feat. Sasha Sloan)

Kaskade

I am not afraid of the things under my bed
Plus the things inside my head
They scare me, they scare me
When I am alone, all my fears, they show their face
Yeah, I swear there's no escape
They scare me, they scare me Knock, knock, knock
Someone let me out
Knock, knock, knock
I try and shut them out, but...
Walls cave in
I guess it's time I let them fall
I've been holding in
Everything for far too long
Ashes, ashes, we all fall down
Ashes, ashes, we all fall down
I'll share this gift
And when it's time I know I'll fly again I hear them through the walls
They keep on calling out my name
Yeah, they don't want me to change
They scare me, they scare me Knock, knock, knock
Someone let me out
Knock, knock, knock
I try and shut them out, but
Walls cave in
I guess it's time I let them fall
I've been holding in
Everything for far too long
Ashes, ashes, we all fall down
Ashes, ashes, we all fall down
I'll share this gift
And when it's time I know I'll fly again Flames take hold me
Through the skyline 'til I'm free
Spread my ashes on the sea
Till I rise Walls cave in
I guess it's time I let them fall
I've been holding in
Everything for far too long
Ashes, ashes, we all fall down
Ashes, ashes, we all fall down
I'll share this gift
And when it's time, I know I'll fly again

I know I'll fly again
