My Song

Brandi Carlile

Everything I do
Surrounds these pieces of my life
That often change
Or hey, maybe I've changedSometimes seeming happy
Can be self-destructive
Even when you're sane
Yeah you're only insaneBut don't bother waking me today
Here I am
I'm so young
I know I've been bitter
I've been jaded
I'm alone
Everyday, I bite my tongue
If you only knew
My mind was full of razors
To cut you like a
Word if only sungBut this is my song
This is my song
I live everyday
Like they'll never be a last one
Till they're gone
And they're gone
I'm not too proud to beg for
Your attention and your friendship
And your time
So you could come and get it from now onHere I am
I'm so young
I know I've been bitter
I've been jaded
I'm alone
Everyday, I bite my tongue
If you only knew
My mind was full of razors
To cut you like a
Word if only sungThis is my song
This is my songAnd it's you
It is youHere I am
I'm so young
I know I've been bitter
I've been jaded
I'm alone
Everyday, I bite my tongue

If you only knew
My mind was full of razors
I'm not sure I can take it
I've nothing strong to hold to
I'm way too old to hate you
My mind is full of razors
To cut you like a
Word if only sungBut this is my song
