

Running For You

Kip Moore

We had a good run
But I knew, I knew, I knew,
I knew this day would come
As bad as I want to
Ain't no way, not me girl
I ain't gonna stop you
Yeah But if the rain starts falling, falling on you
And your heart starts breaking, breaking in two
If the light starts fading, baby don't move
Just say my name, stay right there
I'll come running for you
Yeah
I'm gonna miss you
But baby there's no way that I can go with you
So go on and chase it
I know, I know, I know, you can almost taste it
Yeah time is wasting But if the rain starts falling, falling on you
And your heart starts breaking, breaking in two
If the light starts fading, baby don't move
Just say my name, stay right there
I'll come running for you
Oh, woah It's gonna be a long night
And I might shed a tear
But I'm gonna be alright
And even though you won't be in my arms
You'll be right where you belong
So go girl, go girl, go on
But if the rain starts falling, falling on you
And your heart starts breaking, breaking in two
If the light starts fading, baby don't move
Just say my name, stay right there
I'll come running for you
Yeah
