

Hurricane

Something Corporate

Shake down, you make me break, for goodness sake
I think I'm on the edge of something new with you Shout out, don't drown the sound
    I'll drown you out, you'll never scream so loud
As I want to scream with youStanding there with your smile blinding your eyes from seeing my face as I'm dying to figure out a girl
    But she drifts so far away, I'm on her coast
So maybe I should stay and map around your worldSo Don't Say, These currents are still killing me
    And you can't explain
How the wind went and pulled me into your hurricane Into your hurricane
    Stand up don't make a sound, your ears might bleed
There's sweet fluorescent enemies that live inside of me
    The world moves faster than I knew, not fast enough
To not creep up on you and the space we put betweenSo pull me under your weather patterns
    Your cold fronts and the rain don't matter
Because a sun burns what I neededSo Don't Say, These currents are still killing me
    And you can't explain
    How the wind went and pulled you into the hurricane
    Into the hurricaneYou don't do it on purpose but you make me shake
    Now I count the hours until you wake
    With your babies breath
    Breathe symphonies
    Come on sweet catastrophe
Well maybe this time I can follow through
    I can feel complete, stop paying dues
    Stop the rain from falling keep my ocean calm
This time I know nothings wrongSo Don't Say, These currents are still killing me
    And you can't explain
    How the wind went and pulled me in and no
    You Don't Say, These currents are still killing me
    And you can't explain
How the wind went and pulled me into your hurricane
    Into your hurricane, into your hurricane
