

Everything All at Once

SYML

This is my hello
This is my clumsy goodbye
I'm putting my glass down I wanna remember tonight
The silence felt justified Learning your colors
The different shades of your eye
Give me your worst thought
You turn away with a sigh
You said you felt patronized In one unending moment
You fall within my reach
I'm close enough to whisper
Hold on to me
Hold on to me
These are my burdens
This is that dark I embrace
Tell me I'm heavy
As you trace the lines on my face
They came with my fall from grace Look at my two hands
Look at these cracks and the holes
I am my savior
I found my truth letting go
And I've never felt so alone
In one unending moment
I fall within your reach
My song a sweet surrender
Hold on to me
Hold on to me
In one unending moment
We fall into the sea
Recall the words I gave to you
Hold on to me hold on to me hold on I found my truth letting go
Recall the words I gave to you
Hold on to me
Hold on to me
