

Say What You Will

Eric Clapton

Say what you will
Good love is hard to find
I've had my fill of the hurtin' kindTake alot of money
To buy up all the painTake alot of honey
To fill me up and put me back on my feet againYou've seen the worst
Still you find the best of me
My love was cursed
Loosin' destiny
Take alot of livin'
To dry up all the tears
Take alot of grinnin'
To cheer me up and put me back on my feet againYou know I needed a friend
I could tell my troubles to
And you have been my friend
So I will give my love to you
Good love from me to youHere it comes again
I feel I'm not good enough Can't remember when it ever felt so tough
Take alot huggin'
Drive away the fear
Take alot of lovin'
To pick me up and put me back
on my feet againYou know I needed a friend
I could tell my troubles to
And you have been my friend
So I will give my love to you
Good love from me to youI know you needed a friend
You could tell your troubles to
And I'll be your friend
And I will give my love to you
Good love from me to youGood love
Good love
Good love from me to you
Good love

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>

