

Vices (feat. Liam Cormier)

Silverstein

you cant see me behind the door i just heard everything you said you call him you're saying all the (same things) you used to say to me who is he i never thought you'd drop that avalanche on me and be unfaithful these hotel walls are paper thin im going outseven seven with the lime will keep me safe long enough to stop the thought of your embrace inside my head the lies that ive been fed throw it back behind my lips the pain is gone line em up and knock em down the night goes on and on and on to let me cope with this disaster im seven deep her brown hair and blue eyes looking right at me who is she i never thought I'd ever think of stepping out I'll fight this temptation this crowded bar is full of sinseven seven with the lime will keep me safe long enough to stop the thought of your embrace inside my head
line em up and knock em down the night goes on and on and on to let me cope with this disasterim not coming home tonight i'd rather sleep on the street im not coming home to you i'd wont sleep with the devil on this city street ill rest my head tonight I'm going out!seven seven with the lime will keep me safe
