

Removing the Common Bond

Psycroptic

Manipulation of evolution
Against all that is natural
A course uncharted
Creating that which was once revered by all
Becoming the one to oppose what has always been
The PinnacleReconstructing the elemental nature of Life
A transcendence with no recourse
Time, no longer the restrictive force
Time, no longer the constant
The pendulum has stopped.
By removing the balancing factor
I rise about the homogeneous
We are equals no more
With the common bond of death removedI stand alone.
Alone in Power.
Alone in Stature.
Alone.
Time is now irrelevant
The invisible structure long ago destroyed
I cannot undo what has been done
A selfish dream that has turned
Into an unwanted reality
Waiting for that which will never come
Without an end, how can "Life" exist?Now I Just Am
I Am Eternal
I am Nothing
