

Hands In the Air (feat. Ne-Yo)

Timbaland

hey baby girl, looking all grown up i wanna know where did you come from the heat begin to ring, i warm up and we're about to go in plane... let's party hard, and just move something the vibe is right and it goes, goes, goes on like you such a beautiful crowd... we're standing on chairs with our hands up in the air girls getting real loud they're blowing in the wind we're standing on chair with the hands up in the air with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air if you're standing on them soft couch cushions careful not to break your concentration maintain sexy as she maintains balance balance, if you fall, baby girl it won't be cute at all drinking, you look me roughly in the eye only comes dancing, holding on...plus you're the music, plus you're the light ...equals one hell of a night, and now i'm talking about such a beautiful crowd...
girls getting real loud
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air with the hands up in the air i got my eyes closed jumping up and down, baby i'm...i got my eyes closed listen to the sounds so hypnotizing and i bet before the night in i won't find one... take her home, get it the next morning baby girl, give me that one more... before you go! i got my eyes closed (baby i got my)
i got my eyes closed (baby i got my) such a beautiful crowd...
girls getting real loud they're blowing in the wind

with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
