

Never Worn White

Katy Perry

You love the hell out of me
And heaven's where we could be
I've stood on the edge of love But never took the leap
And you took my armour off
And did it delicately
And I let my guard down
To show you what's underneath Thank God that you were man enough to come
Answer my mamma's prayers
You asked the question, I said, "Yes"
But I'm scared
'Cause I've never worn white
But I wanna get it right
Yeah, I really wanna try with you
No, I've never worn white
But I'm standin' here tonight
'Cause I really wanna say, "I do"
I do See us in 60 years with a full family tree (I do)
Give my blood, sweat, and tears to reach our destiny (I do)
'Cause love is a minefield, let's take this war, baby (I do)
'Cause at the end of it all, I choose you and you choose me (I do) Thank God I was woman enough to come
Answer your father's prayers
You asked the question
I could tell you were scared
'Cause I've never worn white
But I wanna get it right
Yeah, I really wanna try with you
No, I've never worn white
But I'm standin' here tonight
'Cause I really wanna say, "I do" Now let's dance with each other (dance with each other)
Mixin' all of our colours
It's so easy to surrender
When you finally find forever No, I've never worn white, no
But I really wanna try with you
Yeah, I've never worn white
But I wanna get it right
'Cause you really wanna say, "I do"
'Cause I do Oh, I do, yeah, yeah
I do
