As Any Fool Can See

Tracy Lawrence

Lately she's been picking fights, dropping hints and just last night I caught a tear as she slipped off to sleep She's not here but she's not gone, I guess she must be waitin' on The kind of man I promised her I'd beAs any fool can see She's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind And it's too late but what keeps killing me Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can see How long did I think she'd stand for me to be the kind of man That came and went just as I dang well pleased While she sits at home alone with thoughts and feeling's of her own Lord knows goodbye would bring me to my knees As any fool can see She's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind And it's too late but what keeps killing me Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can see She's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind And it's too late but what keeps killing me Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can seeShe's gonna cross that line, she's got leaving on her mind And it's too late but what keeps killing me Is knowing I've been blind as any fool can see Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
