Wiz Khalifa

Yup... it's all raw
Motion right here no paper no none of thatI must be dreaming, yea I must be dreaming
Yea cuz'
I got the cars got the clothes got the money and the hoes and the way I see it it ain't gon' change
I must be dreaming, yeah I must be dreaming
Yeah cuz'
I got the cars got the clothes got the money and the hoes and the way I see it it ain't gon' changeI must be
I wake up early in the morning to a fat blunt, a phone full of missed calls my shit backed up
A flight to catch my shit packed up, them superstars you hear about that's us
The 12s in the trunk hit like a Mac truck, I see your bitch it's a wrap like a packed lunch
My diamonds shining, they motivating, I see you smiling, I know you hatin'
I'm on the road like here there and everywhere, in hollywood eatin' good smokin' heavy there
Ain't comfortable unless I got alot of money near, I'm in exclusive shit you got alot of funny gear
Flat screen TV, no glare in 'em, an' all my rooms got king size beds in 'em, I'm not jus talkin'
That's all it seem an, my lives a movie
I must b dreaming, yea I must b dreamingYea cus
I got the cars got the clothes got the money n the hoes and the way I see that ain't gon change
I must b dreaming, yea I must b dreaming
Yea cus
I got the cars got the clothes got the money n the hoes and the way I see that ain'tgon change
I must b
I go to sleep n a new city every night, an pray to god he lookin over me evry flight a new time zone
You hear me right, LA to MIA I be ther tonight, then I'm n daygo shopin for new shit Eatin at roof chris right cross the cruise ships, hear niggas talkin bout it, I really do this
You couldn't walk a mile in these niggas' shoes here, car service when I land homie I'm the man
Don't live the life of a star it's hard to understand, everywhere I go they know my name
They see me smiling, they know my chain, plus they no I got flow like the sink brah
Diamond linked up, all my niggas inked up, a lot of starving, I'm out here eating and making history
I must be dreaming, yeah I must be dreaming
Yea cuz
I got the cars got the clothes got the money and the hoes and the way I see it it ain't

gon change
I must be dreaming, yeah I must be dreaming
Yea cus
I got the cars got the clothes got the money and the hoes and the way I see it it ain't
gon change
I must be
