

One Day Away (feat. Keith Urban)

Buddy Guy

Every moment has a meaning, and time is a precious thing.
When we wake up in the morning, who knows what it's gonna bring?
Life rearranges, all of our best laid plans.
Better say what's in your heart, you might not get another chance. So tell them you love them,
and do it today.
Wait for tomorrow, don't wish one day away, don't wish one day away. If you've taken folks for granted, think they'll always been around, it's too late to say you're sorry when they're sleeping in the ground. So tell them you love them, and do it today.
Don't wait for tomorrow, don't wish one day away, don't wish one day away. Of all the things we left undone, of the words we're meant to say.
What if we could all have just one more day?
Yeah, yeah.
So tell them you love them, and do it today.
Don't wait for tomorrow, don't wait for tomorrow, don't wait for tomorrow, don't wish one day away.
No, no, no, no, no, don't wish one day away.
