Unpredictable

Becky Hill

I believe that we all have a chance
I believe that love will grow
And in time we'll stand in fields of gold
From the seeds that we have sown
You can find me when you think you're lost
And it can lead you home
But it'll find you when it's ready, yeah
Love is unpredictableLove is unpredictable
Oh, love is unpredictableUnpredictable
Love is...
Love is unpredictable
I believe there's someone right for me (right for me)
If I stop holding on too tight
Tryna find a face to recognize
But that will only come with time (time)
So I'll pretend that it don't bother me (I'll pretend)
And I won't ask for nothing more
I'll leave it up to chance
'Cause it's not in my hands
Love is unpredictableLove, love is unpredictable
Oh, love is unpredictableUnpredictable
Love is unpredictableWhen it comes alone
There will be a warning
If you keep the faith
It will lead your way to love
Love
Love is unpredictable
Love, love is unpredictable
Love, love is unpredictable
Love, love is
Love, love
Love is, love
Love is unpredictable
Love, love is unpredictable
