

Cassiopeia

Deaf Havana

Blacked out 'til the morning broke,
and I was swallowing glass and inhaling smoke,
I lost my mind in a haze
of cobbled streets and broken windows.
I managed to get away, for a minute or two,
to catch my breath, just long enough to catch sight of a man with a broken nose and a bandaged leg, s-sleeping silently in a photo booth
on the road I caught a cab, back through the heart of the tourist district into our rundown, rented pad.
I met a strange girl from Brazil, she made me laugh for an hour or two and took me back to the festival and I was sure that I was gonna go But then I bought a beer from a nice bar lady with the kindest eyes that I'd ever seen,
she said "...take a water too honey, it's warm outside, we don't want you dying do we..."
Oh Berlin my love, I've got you underneath my skin.
In the early hours of the morning, I can't help but let you in.
Oh Berlin my love, I've got you underneath my skin.
In the early hours of the morning, I can't help but let you in.
I was there talking to you about some of the shit they'd put you through, and I knew that this could be my chance to get you closer.
So I met you round the back, away from the others,
I was trying to fight off my brother but I knew, I knew that you didn't have eyes for me...
Oh Berlin my love, I've got you underneath my skin.
In the early hours of the morning, I can't help but let you in.
Oh Berlin my love, I've got you underneath my skin.
In the early hours of the morning, I can't help but let you in.
(Let you in)
I've got a fire and it burns in me
it takes me back to the very day I was with you there.
I've got a fire and I knew back then it was clear to see that I was running scared
I've got a fire and it burns in me
takes me back to the very day I was with you there.
(When I was with you there)
I've got a fire and it burns in me
and I knew back then it was clear to see I've got a fire and it burns in me, it burns in me

...
I've got a fire and it burns in me
it takes me back to the very day
I've got a fire and it burns in me
I've got a fire and it burns in me
takes me back to the very day
I've got a fire and it burns in me
takes me back to the feeling I was with you there.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>