[Verse 2: Lil Pump]

I can't feel my body, 'cause I pop a lot of molly

Welcome to the party, bitch I'm 'bout to catch a body

Bitch I'm in the shit, we don't give a fuck about it

Bitch I start a riot, bitch I'm 'bout to start a riot
Welcome to the trap, got my grandma sellin' crack
I make [?], you make it when you sittin' down just movin' packs
Make a bitch do jumpin' jacks like she was an acrobat
Got these bitches lookin' at me crazy 'cause I got face tats
Ooh, drip, drip, drip, I cannot go away for a bitch
Drop 5 million on my crib, now Lil Pump is rich as shit, ooh
And I'm still on probation, pop a pill I feel amazing
You just bluffin', you just hatin'
All these diamonds on me skatin'
Man I do this every day, spend three thousand on some shades
I got bitches in L.A., your boyfriends broke, his diamonds fake [Chorus: French Montana &
Zhavia Ward]

Welcome to the party, (welcome to the party)
Welcome to the party, aye, (welcome to the party)
Welcome to the party, aye, (welcome to the party)
Welcome to the party, (welcome to the party)
Welcome to the party, (welcome to the party)
Welcome to the party, aye, (welcome to the party)
Welcome to the party, aye, (welcome to the party)
We on fire [Outro: French Montana]
Step up in the party, step up in the party hot
