

More Than Friends

Grace Weber

Funny how it all came down, funny how it all came down to this Wondering where you are
Leaving with a bad taste on your lips
What would you say to me?

If I was happily
'lone in my bed
We had the ability

To be more than friends
Funny how it all came down, funny how it all came down to this
Sending your regards in paper

Trying to collect on your regrets
I never meant to let you down
I guess I didn't know what you'd expect
What would you say to me?

If I was happily
'lone in my bed
We had the ability

To be more than friends
What would you say to me?

If I was happily
Alone in my bed
We had the ability

To be more than friends
Funny ain't it?

Funny ain't it?
Ain't it funny

What would you say to me?

If I was happily
Alone in my bed
We had the ability

To be more than friends
