Forever Mine

Andra Day

My heart has been a chessboard
Making moves and losing out
Played so many times before
And there ain't nothing to brag aboutWhy this must be a new brew
When you caught him singing Blue Moon
You turn me all the way around
And I'm tired of the fine lineI just want you to be forever mine
Be forever mine
When there's nothing I can sing now
That ain't been sung before
But your love is a standout
So gon' ahead and take the floor
You had to jimmy my heart loose
Now I'm stuck in your voodoo
Pick me up, don't ever put me downLook I'm tired of the fine line
I just want you to be forever mine
I want you to be forever mine
The way that you move, never seen it before
Lookin' for my heart, can't find it no moreYou ransom my heart and I get that reward
Winning the crown like a trojan horse
I come back, back, back everytime
You got me slike the Mobb when they rhyme
Come out of nowhere, come mess with my life
I just want you to be forever mine
Be forever mine
Be forever mine
Oh but you was cookin' up a new stew
Must have put something in my food
Cause now I'm lost up in the clouds
Oh and I'm tired of the fine line
I just want you to be, be forever mine
Oh you gotta be, be forever mine
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/