Tyler and the Tribe

I was gone away
When you decided to stay
You couldn't tell me the storyThe man of time came here to say
Farther from me you would stay
And you obey, blindlyAnd now you're gone
You couldn't tell me
The storyAnd now you're gone
You couldn't tell me
That you love meThings just disappear
Was it that I never hear
You tried to tell me the story
I left things that meant
The most to my heart's deep lament
Was it on me, the blameNow I'm gone
You couldn't tell me
The storyNow I'm gone
You couldn't tell me
That you love me, yeahIf I forgot your name
I'd never forget your face
It was so sweet, I can still seeThe sunshines though your hair
My mind's eyes can only stare
It was warm here, I can still feel
Now I'm gone
You couldn't tell me
The Story
Now I'm gone
You couldn't tell me
That you love me, yeahThere's no point in stayin'
I don't even know what I'm sayin'
Except that I love you
And you couldn't tell me
