

Deep Six

Marilyn Manson

You want to know what Zeus said to Narcissus?
"You'd better watch yourself"
You want to know what Zeus said to Narcissus?
"You'd better watch yourself"
"You'd better watch yourself" It's like a stranger had a key, came inside of my mind
And moved all my things around
But he didn't know snakes can't kneel or prey
Try to break the psyche down It's as if my feathers were wax
And your artillery lead
Do you like our bed?
Do you like our bed?
Deep six, six, six feet deep
Deep six, six, six feet deep It's like a stranger had a key, came inside of my mind
And moved all my things around
But he didn't know snakes can't kneel or prey
Try to break the psyche down It's as if my feathers were wax
And your artillery lead
Do you like our bed?
Do you like our bed?
It's as if my feathers were wax
And your artillery lead
Do you like our bed?
Do you like our bed? Deep six, six, six feet deep
Deep six, six, six feet deep
You want to know what Zeus said to Narcissus?
