

Disconnected

In Flames

Look at the dead outside my window
Wonder what's on their mind
Why do they run?
They all seem to have a mission
But then they cry themselves to sleep You'll receive what you give
And this is like nothing
(Oh) I feel like shit
But at least I feel something Is this all you're meant to be?
Their marks in the pavement
You've walked this route too many times
What if I change the signs?
Would you even take notice? You'll receive what you give
And this is like nothing
(Oh) I feel like shit
But at least I feel something Is this all you have to give? Go... march...
Straight jacket union
Go... march...
In chains, surrender You'll receive what you give
And this is like nothing
(Oh) I feel like shit
But at least I feel something
You'll receive what you give
And this is like nothing
(Oh) I feel like shit
But at least I feel something
