

I Will Always Love You

Kenny Rogers

I saw you tonight in the room where love had started once before and we open up the skies with your loving eyes you take me back where you belong in my heart But I still remain and I will never change I will always love you I will always take your part and all the years of losing you and then being close to you again the very chance that I could take your heart your hand in mine one more time and the days that lie ahead they all go wrong but tonight my love there's no question in my mind where we should be and it's clear that you're alone and I'm alone and all the fools have gone you open up so tears can fall from your eyes Be there sunshine or rain
and all the years of losing you and then making love to you again
your hand in mine for all time Now my dream will come true if you love me (me)
I will always love you
and all the years of losing you and then
your hand in mine I will always love you I will always take your part
and all the years of losing you and then
your hand in mine
