

Girlfriend

Alicia Keys

Yeah yeah what
Uhuh uh yeah yeah what 2000
Your girlfriend
Alicia Keys
Uh huh
JD wha' wha'
Come on Alicia:
Maybe silly for me to feel this way about you and her
Cuz I know she's been such a good friend
I know she has helped you through
Talkin late on the phone
Every night you've been callin'
Private moments alone could your heart soon be fallin
And I know she's a friend
But I can't shake the feeling
That I could be losing your heart I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
Although she's just a girl that is your friend
I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
She shares a special part of you Ohohohoh
You said that she's one who helped you see
How deep you're in love with me
And intentions were not to get in between
But I see possibilities
And you say that you feel
I'm the best thing in your life
And I know it's real I see it in your eyes
There's no reason for me, to even feel this way
I know you just enjoy her company I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
Although she's just a girl that is your friend
I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
She shares a special part of you I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
Although (you say) she's just a girl that is your friend
I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
She shares a special part of you Ohohohoh
JD:
You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why
You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why
You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why
You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why
You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why

You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why
You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why
You say you're jealous but you can't tell me why Alicia:
It's enough to make a nigga go crazyoh-oh
I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
Although she's just a girl that is your friend
I think I'm jealous of your girlfriend
She shares a special part of you
