

All I Want

Jay Sean

Early in the morning
I wake up to you
Asking me if I ever lied to you
Cause if you didnt notice
I came home to you
Cause baby loving you is all I ever wanna do
Girl I really want you
Youre the only one I want
Cause baby youre the one
And loving you is all I ever wanna do
Girl I really want you
Youre the only one I want
Cause baby youre the one
And loving you is all I ever wanna do
All I wanna do
All I wanna do
Loving you is all I ever wanna
Whats with all the questions
Asking me what time I came home to you
And whats with all the checking on me?
I only got one thing to prove
Cause if you didnt notice
I came home to you
Cause baby loving you is all I ever wanna do
Girl I really want you
Youre the only one I want
Cause baby youre the one
And loving you is all I ever wanna do
Girl I really want you
Youre the only one I want
Cause baby youre the one
And loving you is all I ever wanna do
All I wanna do
All i wanna do
And loving you is all I ever wanna do
Take my phone if it helps, it ain't even password protected
It's just the truth I've accepted
It's what I should have expected
You saw those messages from next bitches
I told you all of those lies
I thought we dealt with it so why mention it?
I can't move on if you don't try

Nah, nah, nah, never that, think again
Shit, I've been there through thick and thin
Baby there was that once you keep reminding me of
But you can't call that shit love, she can't come in between us

Us no girl

Girl I really want you
And loving you is all I ever wanna do

Girl I really want you
And loving you is all I ever wanna do

All I want to do

All I want to do

And loving you is all I ever wanna do
