

Feeling the Night (feat. Becky Jean Williams)

Kaskade

Someone told me the truth
And the music rules my life forever
Never breaking my heart
'Cause I wanna be with you Somewhere under the sky
There's a place where we can be together
Sometimes maybe by night there's a place for me and you Feeling the night, feeling alright
Feeling the music every time
I need your heart, I need your soul
I wanna be under control
Feeling the night, feeling alright
Feeling the heat, feeling the night Give me your hand
Follow me there
Never forget we'll be friends 'till the end
Maybe the love that we make every night
Will give us the power to fly Feeling the night, feeling alright
Feeling the music every time
I need your heart, I need your soul
I wanna be under control
Feeling the heat, feeling strong
Feeling the power of a song
Feeling alone, I need your soul
I wanna be under control Night after night you fill my life
With memories of the past
You're with me at last
