

Do It Anyway

Ben Folds Five

You might put your love and trust on the line
It's risky, people love to tear that down, let 'em try
    Do it anyway
    Risk it anyway
And if you're paralyzed by a voice in your head
It's the standing still that should be scaring you instead
    Go on and do it anyway
    Do it anyway
There will be times you might leap before you look
    There'll be times you'll like the cover
And that's precisely why you'll love the book
    Do it anyway, do it anyway
    Tell me what I said I'd never do
    Tell me what I said I'd never say
    Read me off a list of the things
    I used to not like, but now I think are okay
    Sometimes it's not subjective: wrong and right
Deep down you know it's downright wrong but you're invincible tonight
    It's done, you did it
Despite your grand attempts the chips are set to fall
And all the stories you might weave cannot negotiate them all
    It's gonna be so very hard to say
And watch the trust and joy all drain from her innocent face
    But you must do it anyway
    It sucks, but do it anyway
Call it surrender but you know that that's a joke
And the punchline is you were actually never in control
    Tell me what you said you'd never do
    Tell me what you said you'd never say
Read me off that list of things cause I used to not like you
    Now I think you're okay
Everybody knows that you just gotta do it anyway
    Do it anyway (x8)
Cause you don't do nothing (Do it anyway)
To avoid self punishment (Do it anyway)
You won't do nothing (Do it anyway)
You won't feel nothing (Do it anyway)
Gotta do it (Do it anyway)
Do it, do it anyway (Do it anyway)
Ah (Do it anyway)
Do it anyway!

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>