

Gentleman

Gallant

You know it's winter somewhere
But it's spring time right here
You need me to water the grass before it all disappears
You said you sick of that high school shit
You need a college degree
So you took all your frustration to me Tell me, have you ever had a gentleman?
If not, then girl you deserve a gentleman
Did you ever didn't like a gentleman?
Not before I entered like a gentleman
Tell me, have you ever had a gentleman?
If not, then girl you deserve a gentleman
Did you ever didn't like a gentleman?
Not before I entered like a gentleman Said fucking with that subtle as stone Nah, we don't want that Throw yourself on like it's meant to be
Leave you without fear of your sanity (girl) Tell me, have you ever had a gentleman?
If not, then girl you deserve a gentleman
Did you ever didn't like a gentleman?
Not before I entered like a gentleman Tell me, have you ever had a gentleman?
If not, then girl you deserve a gentleman
Did you ever didn't like a gentleman?
Not before I entered like a gentleman
Take what you want, don't be scared
Girl, you know I've been here before
You can ignore all the signs that you feel
When you're touching and kissing my neck
Girl, you know what you want
And I'm here to give into
Take what you want, don't be scared
Girl, you know I've been here before
You can ignore all the signs that you feel
When you're touching and kissing my neck
Girl, you know what you want
And I'm here to give into Tell me, have you ever had a gentleman?
If not, then girl you deserve a gentleman
Did you ever didn't like a gentleman?
Not before I entered like a gentleman Tell me, have you ever had a gentleman?
If not, then girl you deserve a gentleman
Did you ever didn't like a gentleman?
Not before I entered, I entered
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>