

Last Call Casualty

Bowling for Soup

you, you called me out you said your done with me but I cant seem to remember anything at 3am am I that guy? The one that's happy hanging with my friends and 5 drinks in I'm in love againso if I get drunk and call u up don't get pissed and don't hang up
I know its late but its never too late to be Another last call casualtyI cant remember what I said
But I swear I meant no harm
I tried to knock on your window
But I set off your alarm
And the days dragged on like a tail pipe band
The nights they ain't so long And the taxi cab I'm riding in is blaring our favorite song again so if I get drunk and call u up
don't get pissed and don't hang up
I know its late but its never too late to be Another last call casualtyI'm sorry a guy picked up the phone
My mind couldn't leave well enough alone
And after the seventh time he hit *69
He said if he finds me I'll be dead
But im already in my head Since hes the one that's lying with you in your bedso if I get drunk and call u up
don't get pissed and don't hang up
I know its late but its never too late to be Another last call casualty
so if I get drunk and call u up
don't get pissed and don't hang up (another last call casualty)
I know its late but its never too late to be Another last call casualty
Another last call casualtyso if I get drunk and call u up
don't get pissed and don't hang up (another last call casualty)
so if I get drunk and call u up
don't get pissed and don't hang up (another last call casualty)
so if I get drunk and call u up
don't get pissed and don't hang up (another last call casualty)
