Sun to Me (MYNC Remix)

Faithless

So in in future lifetimes

It's a certainty

That we'll again

Fit together perfectlySo in in future lifetimes

It's a certainty

That we'll again

Fit together perfectly You're the sun to me

I stumbled into you

Accidentally

And yet

Feels as though you were

Sent to me...

That we were meant to be

Together and grow with

Each other

Through the centuriesIf my body was your mirror

You'd be able to see

Exactly

What it is about you

That I'm addicted to

Helplessly you distract me

Like a mountain view of

Rivers crashing into the sea

Strangely

You all seem familiar to me

Would so, love tie us

Together through eternity

So in future lifetimes

It's a certainty

We will again

Fit together perfectly

You're the sun to me

You're the sun to meSo in future lifetimes

It's a certainty

We will again

Fit together perfectly You're the sun to me You're the sun to meIf my body was your mirror You'd be able to see

Exactly

What it is about you

That makes me shiver

You give me a soul fever

And I achieve

A new level of graceSo in future lifetimes

It's a certainty

We will again

Fit together perfectly

Perfectly

Perfectly

Perfectly

Perfectly

PerfectlyYou're the sun to me

You're the sun to meWe do it so fervently

We do it so fervently

With your urgency

We do it so fervently You're the sun to me

You're the sun to me

You're the sun to me

You're the sun to meYou're the sun to me

You're the sun to me

You're the sun to me

You're the sun to me
