

What Can I Say

Carrie Underwood

Piercing words, eyes are red
Watched taillights in the rain
Empty heart filled with regret
I know we were both to blame And i'm not sorry that it's over
But for the way we let it end
So I said all I had to say
...In letters that I threw away

And you should know, please believe me

...

I've picked up the phone a thousand times
And tried to dial your number, but it's been so long

It's never easy, it's like tryin spin the world the other way

...What can I say?...

How did it come to this? I think about you all the time

It's no excuse, but I wish

That I never made you cry

I'm not sorry that it's over

But for the way we let it end

I couldn't find the words to say...

And you should know, please believe me

I've picked up the phone a thousand times
And tried to dial your number, but it's been so long

It's never easy, it's like tryin spin the world the other way

What can I say? What can I say?

What can I say? What can I say?

...

I hate to think all you had of me

(I said all I had to say)

Is a memory I left you, place between what was meant to be

(In letters that I threw away)

And the mess that it turned into

And you should know, please believe me

I've picked up the phone a thousand times
And tried to dial your number, but it's been so long

It's never easy, it's like tryin spin the world the other way

...

What can I say? What can I say?

What can I say?

...
