

Into the Wild

Lewis Watson

Take my hand and let go I just want you to know you're the only one that pulls me in You changed everything. Like one small shaft of light flooding into my eyes I will never see things just the same but I'm not afraid... And all I have, doesn't seem so significant and at the drop of a hat
I could leave almost everything that I've ever known, so here we go... Step out into the wild There's a beautiful storm in your eyes
We're perfectly intertwined
and if it's quite alright
you could be my way of life.
Sea salt sits on your lips Birds fall earthward from cliffs Thought I couldn't do this but I'm fine 'cause you're by my side. And all I have, it doesn't seem so significant
and at the drop of a hat
my whole world's getting different so here we go, off road. Step out into the wild There's a beautiful storm in your eyes
We're perfectly intertwined
and if it's quite alright maybe it's time to step out into the wild
There's a beautiful storm in your eyes
We're perfectly intertwined and if it's quite alright
you could be my way of life.
And we take another step into the truly unknown Don't know why but it's somewhere that we have to go and it's dangerously wonderful so come on, come on, come on, come on...
Step out into the wild
There's a beautiful storm in your eyes
We're perfectly intertwined
and if it's quite alright
you could be my way of life
